Message from Mrs Donne

We have now fixed the reveal of the mosaic as Wednesday 29th November at 9am. If you could share my post on facebook this week that would be great. Hopefully the local press will be there and as many villagers as possible will make it feel like an exciting event for the children. It's being mounted directly onto the wall, so will be a permanent feature in the village, so it's really special for our current cohort to be part of an art installation that will be there for many years to come. Hopefully being at 9am will mean many of you can stay after drop off to see it revealed for the first time.

We'd like to go and do some carol singing this year at an old people's home or something similar. If anyone has any contacts who we can ask if they would like us, we would appreciate it.

News from Swallow Class

We have been learning about Ernest Shackleton this week as part of our 'Ice Explorers' topic. We learnt about his expeditions to the South Pole, and watched a bit of Ben Fogle's recreation of his expedition called 'Endurance: race to the pole' Which is on the channel 5 iplayer if anyone is interested. It was a good way to see all the equipment they would have had, including reindeer fur sleeping bags which moulted everywhere.

News from Hare Class

This week we have been continuing with our English topic, researching endangered animals in Madagascar and producing a fact file to support our research.

Can you please be mindful of peoples driveways when you are parking for school drop off and collection.

Stars of the Week

Swallow Star of the Week is	Elodie - for persevering through some really tricky maths this week, flying with spellings, and being really independent with her learning.
Hare Star of the Week is	Michael - for having a super attitude to his learning, particularly with problem solving and explaining his thinking in maths.

Children In Need

A total of £28 was raised from the non-uniform donations and £23.70 was raised from all the change used to make Pudsey Bear! Thank you to everyone that donated towards this very important charity. The children had great fun making Pudsey and then counting the money afterwards!
